Hear what our exhibitors say:

We've been looking for ways to reconnect with regional buyers ever since the pandemic and we're happy to meet so many target buyers from Hong Kong and the Mainland China this year. It's a good sign for us to expand further.

Hear what our visitors say:

This year's HOFEX offered an unrivalled product showcase – pulling together the best from each F&B and hospitality category. I would like to praise the way HOFEX categorises suppliers based on sectors and countries. I could easily locate what I was looking for in the large exhibition hall.

Mr Eddie Lau

I'm surprised by how packed the show is! I've met so many old friends and new industry peers, sharing past practices and latest market insights to achieve win-win. We highly recommend HOFEX to all F&B & hospitality practitioners and we look forward to what HOFEX will bring next year!

I'm a huge supporter of HOFEX and I'm glad that the show gets better and better every year. It's good to see the return of so many national pavilions and overseas exhibitors, which offer exciting and characterful products that have strong potential in the Asia market.
